

Outil de dépistage en littératie pour la maternelle à la 3^e année

Appréciation de rendement en littératie précoce (ALP)

Échéance 2026/2027

If a student is not developmentally ready to engage with the assessment, pause the process to ensure that the experience remains supportive and appropriate. Unadministered tasks are left blank in EdPlan, and observations regarding the student's readiness can be documented in the comment section to support future planning and instructional decisions. Conversely, if a student is proficient on all grade level tasks, continue assessing tasks at the next grade level as long as it continues to be supportive and appropriate.

The timeline below reflects the minimum requirements for EdPlan data entry.
