

HIGH YIELD ROUTINE: CLOTHESLINE MATH

WHAT IS IT?

Clothesline Math is a routine in which students place moveable cards with either numbers or representations of quantity onto a length of string (open numberline). Cards can also be stacked to represent equivalent quantities.

The discussion that could take place during clothesline math may include order of numbers/quantities, missing numbers, fixing incorrect placement of cards, or even using the clothesline to play 'Guess My Number'.

VISIT

<http://www.meaningfulmathmoments.com/clothesline-numberlines.html>

<https://mathforlove.com/lesson/guess-my-number/>

GUIDING QUESTIONS

- Where does ____ belong?
- Is ____ greater or less than ____?
- How do you know?
- What is the difference/ distance between ____ and ____?
- Which card (value) is equivalent to ____?
What is two more/less than ____?

